Producer Statement

An applicant for a building consent may provide a Producer Statement establishing compliance with all or any of the provisions of the building code. They can provide a territorial authority with reasonable grounds to issue building consents without having to duplicate design or construction checks made by suitably qualified professionals.

Hutt City Council is not obliged to accept Producer Statements, and will only do so if satisfied that the statement is made by a suitably qualified professional.

Council Policy in relation to Producer Statements requires that an application fee of $100.00 per item be lodged with the Statement.

A copy of the calculations relating to the Producer Statement is also required to be lodged at the time of application
